MdGTC[®] Does not teach or train its' students building entry and room clearing techniques. Room entry is an EXTREMELY risky business and is best left to Law Enforcement professionals. The civilian should have only one goal in mind and that is to safely exit the building if they feel that it contains a threat and let the police do their job from there. The ONLY reason that one would not go DIRECTLY to the nearest exit is to secure children or other family members in other parts of the home or if cornered.

Please use the information that you learn in our classes responsibly and with the knowledge that if you do not practice what we teach regularly, reflexes and techniques may not be there for you if you need it.
